CVV Holds Major Fundraiser as It Prepares for Launch on May 1, 2017

CVV Team Raises over $3700 at Alzheimer's Walk

Led by Task Force member Joanne Wasak, walkers and donors from CVV raised over $3700 for the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California and Nevada. The walk was held at Heather Farms Park in Walnut Creek on October 1. According to the team, the weather and the spirits were great. More photos on page 4.

The Clayton Valley Village Task Force is moving on all fronts to be ready to officially open for business on May 1, 2017.

Task Force committees are reaching out for volunteers, successful start. If you've ever signed up for this newsletter at the Clayton Farmers Market or a CVV event, expect a phone call asking how you would like to help.

CVV is looking for volunteer drivers to take members to appointments, handypersons to do light home maintenance, and tech-savvy people to teach online and cell phone skills. Volunteers for other services will be added as the year progresses.

A launch party and community celebration is being planned for late afternoon and early evening on May 1, 2017 at Endeavor Hall to gather members, supporters, and those who want to know more and sign up.

But First. the Sunday Supper and Silent Auction

The first stepping-stone to get to the May I launch is CVV's third annual Sunday Supper and Silent Auction. CVV depends on the generosity of the community and its members and supporters to make this fun event a successful fundraiser, as well.

This year's auction features prizes like a week at a Tahoe condo, a guided hike for ten through Mt. Diablo State Park, a round of golf for four at Oakhurst, an hour of an attorney's time to review your wills and trusts and suggest updates, as well as wines, dinners, and other merchandise from local businesses.

Once again the supper and auction is at La Veranda in Clayton. The event runs from 5:00 until 9:00 on October at 23.

The menu features a choice of lasagna with meat sauce; chicken with mushroom sauce; or tilapia piccata. Included are sautéed veggies, La Veranda's famous Reigna salad, and coffee. Donated wines and cookies at each table will be gratis. As customary, there will be a no-host bar. Cost is $45 per person.

Reservations and payments must be made no later than October 18.

See page 3 for complete details.

Pickleball Comes to Concord

Several Clayton residents attended the September 17 ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new Pickleball courts at Concord Community Park on Willow Pass Road. The new courts are now open after three years of planning and support from the City of Concord. CVV members there were Sue Manning, Carol Grey, and Sonja Wilkin along with residents Sue Elliott and Chris Smith as volunteers. "Pickleball can be a great opportunity for all ages in our own community," Wilkin said.

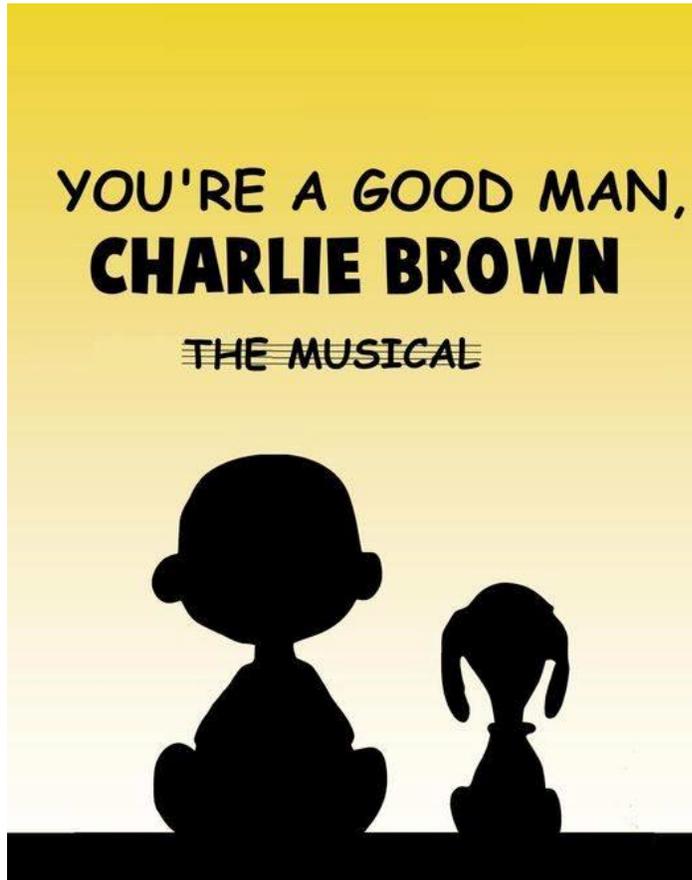

Pickleball is a low impact paddle sport played on a badminton-sized court with a slightly modified tennis net, a large ping pong like paddle and a plastic whiffle ball. Created for all ages and skill levels, the simple rules of the game make it easy for beginners to learn. Classes are available, and a Pickleball league is planned for this fall. For more information, contact Program Coordinator Kathryn Monroy at (925) 671-3423.

CVV is considering fielding a team.
